

July 2010

GULF GATE LIBRARY COMPUTER CLASS SCHEDULE

Wednesday, July 7 at 11 AM - Computer Basics:

This class is for people who have no prior knowledge of computers. Participants will learn basic operations and terminology related to keyboards and mice.

Tuesday, July 13 at 6 PM - Beginning Genealogy:

For people who want to research their family histories, explore some useful online resources like Heritage Quest, RootsWeb, and FamilySearch.

Wednesday, July 14 at 11 AM – Introduction to the Internet:

Topics covered in class are the web browser Internet Explorer, basic Internet terminology, and web site navigation.

Thursday, July 15 at 2 PM - Beginning Genealogy:

For people who want to research their family histories, explore some useful online resources like Heritage Quest, RootsWeb, and FamilySearch.

Wednesday, July 21 at 11 AM - Introduction to Basic E-mail:

This class teaches e-mail terminology and e-mail operations (e.g., replying to and composing a message, attaching files, and forwarding a message).

Tuesday, July 27 at 6 PM - Computer Basics:

This class is for people who have no prior knowledge of computers. Participants will learn basic operations and terminology related to keyboards and mice.

Thursday, July 29 at 2 PM – Introduction to the Internet:

Topics covered in class are the web browser Internet Explorer, basic Internet terminology, and web site navigation.