Howard Rayfiel, resident counsel to Desilu Productions and later vice president of Lucille Ball Productions, will share his remembrances working with the inimitable comedian and businesswoman Lucille Ball.

Rayfiel has written a fascinating memoir, Where the Hell is Desilu? The book – subtitled How to Fail in Hollywood Without Really Trying – spans not only Rayfiel's 9-year association with our favorite redhead but his entire career in the business of entertainment law. Included in the book are behind-the-scene stories about the final years of The Lucy Show and the subsequent Here's Lucy series.
